

Statement of Purpose

The material contained here is designed for the instruction, definition and interpretation for all Cavalcade of Bands activities and events. If further clarification is necessary, administrators from the Board of Directors, Marching Band and Jazz Band divisions will explain in writing, any interpretation as to the intent of this information.

This detail has been prepared and published for a better understanding from anyone participating or attending various uniformed group events. Proposed changes must be presented in writing to the Board of Directors. Upon approval by the Board of Directors, these changes must be presented to the general membership. Adoption of any change will be granted by a majority vote of the general membership at a published general meeting.

Cavalcade of Bands events are in a continuing process of development and improvement to meet the ever-changing musical landscape and opportunities to enhance the performing pageantry arts. The Board of Directors, Marching Band and Jazz Band divisions welcomes any suggestions or constructive criticism for the improvement of the association.

By-Laws

Name – The name of the organization shall be Cavalcade of Bands Association, Inc (herein referred to as Cavalcade of Bands). It shall be a nonprofit organization incorporated under the laws of the state of Pennsylvania.

Purpose – There are three main areas of concentration for Cavalcade of Bands. These are:

1. Promote Music – To organize a program that will promote music and its related activities.
2. Education – To formulate and maintain policies that will safeguard the educational values of Cavalcade of Bands competition and cultivate high ideals in performing arts.
3. Competition – To promote uniformity of standards in all Cavalcade of Bands events.

Overview – Cavalcade of Bands is composed of member schools marching bands and jazz bands. Control of Cavalcade of Bands is vested in band directors in cooperation with the administrators of their respective schools. Any organization is welcome to participate regardless of the number or experience of its performers. Cavalcade of Bands supports all member ensembles and is committed to their continued learning and growth.

Philosophy – It is the continuing philosophy of Cavalcade of Bands to provide students with a broad array of educational opportunities for the development of abilities in music and the performing arts. Through competitive and non-competitive evaluations, the primary goal is to promote the ongoing development and mastery of cumulative technical and artistic skills reflecting contemporary educational principles.

Motto – Education Through Musical Involvement

Fiscal Year – The fiscal year shall be July 1st to June 30th inclusive.

Board of Directors

- The executive and administrative body of Cavalcade of Bands shall be known as the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall consist of five (5) members elected by the membership. The membership shall elect the corporate office of President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer and At-Large Member. Each voting member must be a band director in a member school district or school (non-public). The At-Large Member shall have voting privileges and will be included in all board matters. At-Large Member will serve as an additional liaison for all member bands and will be expected to have a greater responsibility to speak for conferences not otherwise represented by the current board.
- There will also be three (3) at large non-voting board members in the positions of Marching Band Director Liaison, Jazz Band Director Liaison and Executive Director. These must be a band director in a member school district or school (non-public) with the exception of the Executive Director.
- Primary governance of the organization will rest with the Board of Directors, whose members shall have the right to vote on all issues before them. From time to time, for the purpose of unity and clarity, matters passed by the Board of Directors may, at the Board's discretion, be brought before the general membership for ratification. In such circumstances, a special organizational business meeting will be either called by voice or written instrument, with a minimum notice of five business days.
- The majority of the Board of Directors cannot be related by blood, marriage or business dealing.
- The voting members of the Board of Directors shall serve for a period of two (2) years following their election.
- The Cavalcade of Bands Executive Committee will consist of the corporate offices of President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer and At-Large Member.
- The Board of Directors shall meet as determined by the need and at such times thereafter as the President or a majority of the members of the Board of Directors may request.
- A majority number of board members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the Board of Directors. If less than a majority is present at a meeting, a majority of the director's present may adjourn the meeting from time to time without further notice.
- No Board of Director shall for reason of his/her office be entitled to receive any salary or compensation, but nothing herein shall be construed to prevent a Board of Director from receiving any compensation from the organization for duties other than as a band director.
- Any Board of Director may be removed by a unanimous vote of remaining Board of Directors whenever, in its judgment, the best interests of the corporation will be served thereby, but such removal shall be without prejudice to the contract rights, if any, or the person so removed.
- The Executive Director, with board consultation and approval, may remove any administrator from their position. The Executive Director may be removed from their position by the Board of Directors.

Meetings

- The Cavalcade of Bands will host three (3) meetings annually.
- A December meeting will take place on a Monday in December, agreed upon by the Board of Directors and announced a minimum of 60 days prior to the meeting date. This meeting will allow for the wrap-up of fall marching activities, the kickoff of winter jazz activities and the Marching Band Rules Congress.
- A Late February/Early March meeting will be held for the sole purpose of discussion of final rule proposals before a week-long online ballot is opened. This meeting will be announced a minimum of 30 days prior to the date it will be held.
- A June meeting will be held for the purpose of wrapping up the annual finances, kicking off the marching band season and hosting the Jazz Band Rules Congress.

Amendments

- Amendments to the By-Laws, Rules and Regulations must be approved by a two-thirds vote of the members present.
- Amendments shall be presented to the Board of Directors at least thirty (30) days before a membership meeting and mailed to all members at least fifteen (15) days prior to the general meeting.
- Amendments to the By-Laws, Rules and Regulations received by the Board of Directors, shall be submitted to the members for approval at the next advertised and sanctioned membership meeting.
- The organization, Board of Directors, officers and employees shall be indemnified by the organization against all expenses and liabilities, including counsel fees. We shall provide to any person who is or was a Board of Director, officer, employee or agent of the organization the indemnity against expensed of a suit, litigation or other proceedings which is specifically permissible under applied law. The Board of Directors may, in its discretion, direct the purchase of liability insurance by way of implementing the provision of this amendment.

Jazz Activities

- Immediately upon conclusion of the jazz season, the liaison will advertise and conduct a meeting/rules congress for the purpose of discussing any proposed changes to the Cavalcade of Bands By-Laws, Rules and Regulations regarding these activities.
- Recommendations:
 - Information from the committees will then be immediately forwarded to both the Board of Directors and the membership for review.
 - Only conference/division representatives may vote on the proposals.
- All submissions received will then be presented to the Cavalcade of Bands membership at the annual spring meeting.
- The general membership will discuss each submission and vote on whether or not the item should be returned to the committee for clarification and/or review.
- Proposals returned to the committee must then be reviewed/approved for final submission to both the Board of Directors and the Cavalcade of Bands general membership.
- All proposals will then be sent to both the Board of Directors and the general membership immediately following their ultimate approval by the committee. This should take place no later than July 1st.
- The liaison will then present said items to the Cavalcade of Bands general membership at the annual Cavalcade of Bands clinic meeting, where comprehensive explanation, discussion and voting for approval of said items will take place.
- Precise discussion description and voting details will be included in the general meeting minutes.
- The Cavalcade of Bands President and Administrative Coordinator will be charged with the responsibility of insuring that all approved changes are correctly inserted into every applicable Cavalcade of Bands document.

Dissolving Cavalcade of Bands, Inc. – In the event Cavalcade of Bands, Inc. would dissolve as an association, any funds remaining in the treasury would be donated to a nonprofit charitable organization (i.e., American Cancer Society, Boys and Girls Club, etc.) This nonprofit charitable organization would be determined by the Board of Directors.
