New Oxford "Royal Guard"

The New Oxford High School marching "Royal Guard" under the direction of Mr. Robert Long is composed of 94 members with a 35 member band front. The Band is led on the field by field commander Steve Norris. The Color Guard Captain is Alice Forry, Flag Captain - Becky Stabler, Rifle Captain Kathy Griffin, and head majorette Kim Wolfe.

The Band has built their show around the theme of the "Bicentennial". Selections include "Stars and Stripes Trio", "Battle Hymn of the Republic", "British March," "Days of Glory" and "1776 Medley".

During the 1974 - 75 school year the band participated in the Miss America parade, Atlantic City, New Jersey, the Azealea Festival, Norfolk, Virginia, and the Apple Blossom Festival, Winchester, Virginia.

This school year on September 2, 1975, the band again marched in the "Miss America" parade in Atlantic city.
