North Penn High School Band

The 1975 Marching Knights are proud to present their competitive field show matching the beauty of the fall band sound with total pageantry and blend of the band front. Off the line musically, the repertoire includes a fanfare of "The Way We Were" followed by "We Will Never Pass This Way Again" and "One Tin Soldier." The remaining portions of the show includes "Bully," a concert consisting of the contrasting "You 'N Me Against The World," "Those Were The Days," and "Barbara Allen." Following the concert will be the drum solo, reprise of "The Way We Were" and "Candide." Throughout the show full utilization is made of contrasting styles, rhythms, and moods, to give you, the audience, the fullest in total entertainment.

Student leadership is provided by Gary Heacock (drum major), Martha Roesch (drum majorette), Frances Washington (Band front captain) and the following command positions: Sue Kuhn and Sue Meissner (hand flags), Doris Pataki (rifles), Bonnie Albertson and Wendy Bishop (majorettes), Sue Rhodes and Donna Bourguignon (silks). The band officers are: Ed Rutherford (president), Doug Kober (vice president), and Sue Wiegand (secretary).

Special appreciation is extended to the following who provide volunteer assistance to the Marching Knights: Tony Riccardi (band front), Kathy Scheaffer (drum line), Bob Chapman (drum line), Judy Bustard (rifles), Martha Neuschwander (band front) and Randy Spaide (announcer and photographer).
