

GOVERNOR MIFFLIN MARCHING MUSTANGS
Shillington, Berks County, Pa.

The Governor Mifflin Marching Mustangs, under the field direction of drum major John Baxewanis and color guard captain Jayme Jackson, are proud to present an all new show concept to satisfy your musical tastes. Utilizing soloists, sections, the auxiliary units and the total band, the 1978 Marching Mustangs offer a variety of sounds and movements.

Musical selections on this year's menu provide the listener with a potpourri of favorite folk melodies which include "The Battle Cry of Freedom"; the production numbers of "Black is the Color of My True Love's Hair", "Camptown Races", "Shenandoah", "Thank God I'm a Country Boy", "Buttons and Bows" and "How the West Was Won"; the concert tune of "Maleguena" and concluding with "The Battle Hymn of the Republic".

The rifle captain is Jennifer Laws, the Silk Captain is Nancy Burkhardt and the feature twirler and swing flag captain is Debbie Heagy.

Members of the instructional staff are: Arthur Himmelberger, band director, show design and show coordinator; Paul Cusano, assistant band director; Scott Evans, show design and rifle instructor; Michelle Martin, Silk Instructor; and Marilyn Caltigerone, choreography.

The Band's credits in recent years include winning the first place trophy in concert competition at the 1978 International Music Festival in Toronto, Canada. Also the band has received Excellent ratings at the Dieruff High School Festival of Bands in Allentown, Pennsylvania.

And NOW - we present for your listening pleasure - the NEW and EXCITING - GOVERNOR MIFFLIN MARCHING MUSTANGS!!