Performance Etiquette

Please be respectful of all performers and audience members. Calling out to performers on stage or talking while groups are performing is not considered appropriate concert etiquette.

Please enter or exit the auditorium between performances.

Please show your appreciation for every performer/soloist during the performance with appropriate applause.

Please visit the refreshment areas to show your support for the hosting schools. Without the support of the hosting school and booster organization we could not make these championship events possible.

Ticket prices are established by the Cavalcade of Bands organization NOT by the host school.

Ticket receipts benefit the students and schools that participate in Cavalcade of Bands non-profit Jazz Band program throughout the year. Jazz clinics, weekly solo awards, school donations, trophies, judges fees, etc...(yearly cost is approximately $10,000) is paid for by the proceeds of these championships.

The Cavalcade of Bands Association

Welcomes YOU to the 2015 Jazz Band Championships!!!

Cavalcade Jazz Festivals are sponsored by the “Cavalcade of Bands Association” which is comprised of over one hundred schools in Pennsylvania and New Jersey. The Jazz band division of Cavalcade is in its 27th year of existence and has held many jazz festivals each year. They sponsor a “Championship” at the end of the jazz band season. The Cavalcade of Bands furnishes each division with at least three best soloist award medals.

The emphasis of these festivals is “Education through Music Involvement”. There are no first, second, or third place bands at CBA Jazz Festivals. Every band is a winner as there are only ratings, solo and section awards announced at the end of the evening. Bands are encouraged to have soloists during their selections. The only competition is for each band to improve its performance each week.

The Cavalcade of Bands provides each festival with a panel of three professional jazz musician/educators to critique each band. Constructive criticisms and positive suggestions are given to each band from the adjudicator’s digital comments.

J.W. Pepper Music Company

Lets hear it for the J.W. Pepper Music Company for their support of all our students who are involved in the performance of music, be it band, orchestra or choral activities. A big thank you this evening to J.W. Pepper who graciously donated the music for sight reading. This mean a lot to the basic competition due to the fact that in case of a tie, the Championship would be awarded to the band with the highest sight reading score.

“Way to go!” to J.W. Pepper’s Paul Smith from all of us in the Cavalcade of Bands!

SPECIAL THANKS TO....
